

AGREEMENT FOR STUDENT EXCHANGE BETWEEN

SCHOOL OF URBAN, ARCHITECTURE AND CIVIL ENGINEERING
OF PUSAN NATIONAL UNIVERSITY
Busan, Korea.

AND

COLLEGE OF ARCHITECTURE AND URBAN PLANNING OF TONGJI UNIVERSITY
Shanghai, China

School of Urban, Architecture and Civil Engineering(CU) of Pusan National University and College of Architecture and Urban planning(CAUP) of Tongji University agree to implement a Student Exchange Agreement in accordance with the principles and guidelines set forth below. The purpose of this agreement is to enhance the educational experience and the cross-cultural understanding of students and faculty from both institutions.

Student Exchange Criteria

It is agreed that:

Article 1: Home and Host Institutions

Within the framework of this exchange, "home institution" will mean the institution in which a student is formally enrolled as a degree candidate, and "host institution" will mean the institution that has agreed to receive students from the home institution for a period of study on a non degree basis.

Article 2: Taking Courses at the Host Institution

The purpose of each student exchange will be to enable students to take classes at, but not to pursue a degree from, the host institution. Courses passed at the host institution will normally be accepted for credit towards the degree at the student's home institution. It will be the responsibility of each participant in the student exchange program to obtain pre-approval from his/her home institution for courses taken at the host institution.

Article 3: Academic Year

Academic year in the context of this agreement is defined as fall and spring semester/term and may include the summer session that follows the spring term.

Article 4: Admission Requirements

Students will be screened for eligibility for admission by the home institution. Each university shall respect the admission requirements and enrollment constraints of the host institution. Participants will be subject to the standard rules, regulations, and enrollment constraints of the host university in the selection of courses. The host institution shall have final authority on admission decisions.

Article 5: Language Proficiency

Students must meet requirements of language proficiency for students whose first language is not that of the host institution.

Article 6: Full-time Enrollment Status

Beginning in 2015 academic year, and continuing for each year during the term of this Agreement, the parties will exchange students enrolled full time. The measure of exchange will be that one student-term/semester at CU of Pusan National University equals one student-term/semester at and CAUP of Tongji University.

Full time, for CU of Pusan National University, is defined thus:

Undergraduate & Graduate students: minimum of 4 academic credits, or 1 design studio (The actual credits requirement shall also follow the individual student's personal study plan issued by home university, as well as the basic requirement by Tongji University as host university)

Full time, for CAUP of Tongji University is defined thus:

Undergraduate & Graduate students: minimum of 4 academic credits, or 1 design studio (The actual credits requirement shall also follow the individual student's personal study plan issued by home university, as well as the basic requirement by Pusan National University as host university)

Article 7: Balance

A maximum of 2 students each way, per academic year, will be exchanged. The maximum number of students for exchange may be amended by mutual agreement. Every effort will be made to maintain an evenly balanced exchange from year to year. The second year need to reach a balance, if the first year fails. Otherwise, the agreement will terminate automatically. Both institutions agree that over a five-year period, balance will be achieved in the exchange of full time students.

Article 8: Academic Advising

The departments/divisions involved in the exchange at the home university will provide academic counseling to ensure that the academic courses taken at the host institution are acceptable to the home institution. The host institution will provide course descriptions and syllabi to aid in course equivalency evaluation. It is the host institution's responsibility to provide foreign transcript evaluation services to exchange students.

Article 9: Academic Performance

Participants in the exchange will be governed by the same regulations and performance standards that pertain to other students at the host university. If the exchange student voluntarily withdraws or is dismissed for disciplinary reasons before the end of the term, it will be considered as a completed exchange from the home institution. In addition, the host institution reserves the right to require the withdrawal of any exchange student whose academic standing or conduct warrants such action. The host institution will consult with the home institution before finalizing such action. The host institution will notify the home institution of the student's last date of attendance.

Article 10: Access to Academic and Social facilities

Students shall be entitled to participate in any introductory or orientation courses or programs that may customarily be arranged for students at the host institution and shall have the same rights of access to academic and social facilities provided by the host institution as do host institution students.

Academic achievement reports will be sent to the student's home university at the conclusion of each semester generally within one, but in no case later than three, weeks after the last day of final examinations. In most cases, this will be a university transcript, to be used at the discretion of the home institution. By participating in an exchange, students are automatically authorizing the transmittal of this transcript.

Article 11: Financial Aid

Financial aid will be processed (awarded, dispersed, reported, and records kept) and satisfactory academic progress will be monitored by the home institution. To facilitate the awarding of financial aid, the designated office at the host institution will convey to the home institution details about cost of education at the host institution, including tuition, fees, room and board, books, etc., as well as the applicable refund and repayment policies of the host institution. In addition, when requested by the home institution, the designated office at the host institution will provide confirmation of enrollment status to verify eligibility for financial aid.

If refund and/or repayment involving financial aid funds becomes necessary, the home institution will calculate the refund and repayment amounts.

Article 12: Visa Support Services

The host institution will assist its guest students, to the fullest extent possible, in obtaining visas and other documents required by the government of the host country. In order to comply with host government regulations, participants who are not host citizens will be required to provide a guarantee that they have the financial resources to meet all expenses.

Article 13: Student Responsibilities and Expenses

1. Registration and payment of tuition

CU of Pusan National University and CAUP of Tongji University will require anticipating students to register at their home institution and pay tuition to their home institution. Participants will be exempted from paying tuition at the host institution.

2. Payment of other Educational and Living Expenses

Neither CU in Pusan National University nor CAUP in Tongji University will be responsible for the costs of books, fees, equipment, room, board, travel, transportation or other personal expenses. The host institution will inform students, at the time of their acceptance, of the approximate costs they will be responsible for at the host institution.

3. Housing

Each institution will assist participating students in securing housing for the period of time that they will be on the host campus; however, the cost of room and board will be paid by the student.

4. Health Insurance and Medical expenses

Student participants will be personally responsible for purchasing the host institution's required health/medical insurance for the time period of their exchange. The host institution will assist incoming student participants in identifying available health insurance options

The exchange participant shall provide emergency contact information. In the event that an exchange participant is involved in a serious accident or other circumstance of grave nature, or is subject to disciplinary action, the host institution will immediately notify the home institution.

Article 14: Exchange Liaison

The academic units of the parties creating this agreement shall each identify an Exchange Liaison who shall be responsible for all matters relevant to the specific exchange agreement.

Articles 15: Policies

1. Both institutions subscribe to a policy of equal opportunity and will not discriminate on the basis of race, gender, age, marital status, ethnicity, religion, national origin, sexual orientation, or handicap.
2. The institutions agree that a student of the home institution who is a national of the country of the host institution will not be eligible to participate in the exchange without the permission of the host institution.
3. The obligations of the two institutions under this agreement are limited to exchange students only and do not extend to spouses and dependents.
4. Specific details not included in this student exchange agreement will be developed jointly and spelled out in a separate addendum to the present Agreement and approved by the appropriate university officials.

Article 16: Review, Contacts, Signatories

This Agreement is subject to review at the end of the first year and shall be effective for five academic years beginning spring, 2015. It shall be subject to revision, modification or renewal by mutual written agreement. Either party may terminate the Agreement by written notice submitted at least 90 days in advance of the next academic semester.

Termination would not affect students already engaged in the Agreement. If the Agreement is not renewed by mutual consent, the Agreement will conclude at the end of the specified time period, or after activities in progress have concluded.

Article 17: Limitation of Resources Committed

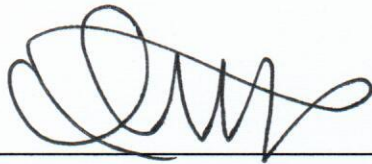

The agreement does not create an obligation for either party to provide resources necessary to carry out any part of the agreement except as approved of the party responsible for providing these resources.

Article 18: Additional Implementing Agreements

The Parties may explore the possibility of the creation of additional exchange programs or other collaborations between various units of the two institutions. Such additions will be covered by developing a new exchange agreement between partners.

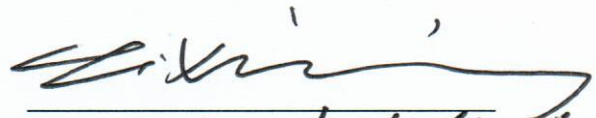

The agreement is established by CU of Pusan National University and by CAUP of Tongji University on the day 26th of January, 2015
